

1 Blackwood Room - Proud Portraits 7.00 - 9.50

Have your Photo taken at My Normal's Proud Portraits Studio. Celebrate your individuality and tell us what makes you proud! With consent, your photo could be a part of a future exhibition My Normal will be creating at Ark-T. This activity includes a free Polaroid picture to take away with you (whilst stocks last!).

2 Stalls featuring LGBTIQ+ charities and more 7.00 - 9.50

- 2a CHE, Blackwell's LGBT+ Bookstall, OX & Fyne Times, Oxford Pride and the National Education Union
- 2b Pink Times, the Museum of Oxford, Witney Pride
- 2c My Normal, Schools Out, LGBT History Month and Voices and Visibility

3 Lecture Theatre - talks curated by Oxford Queer Studies Network

- 7.30 - 7.45 Stephen Turton - A Queer History of the Dictionary
- 8.00 - 8.15 Flair Donglai Shi - From Inter-racial Castration to Intra-racial Intimacy: A Brief History of East Asian Men on the Anglo-American Screen
- 8.30 - 8.45 Ruth Ramsden-Karelse - Reading the Kewpie Photographic Collection: Queer World-Making in Apartheid-Era Cape Town
- 9.15 - 9.45 Learning to See - a film by Gail Gauron with Q&A

4 Old Library - poetry, music and drag curated by My Normal

- 7.30 - 7.45 Poetry with Ashanti Wheeler-Artwell, "the new rock star of poetry"
- 7.55 - 8.15 Aphra Taylor - a solo artist that mixes the intimacy and melody of folk with the slacker scuzz of grunge
- 8.25 - 8.40 Poetry with Keith Jarrett, a former UK Poetry Slam Champion who writes lyrically rich poems charged with passion and humour
- 8.50 - 9.10 Junk Whale - fuzzy big-hearted Indie rock
- 9.20 - 9.50 Drag Syndrome - the world's first Drag troop featuring highly addictive drag queens and kings with Down's Syndrome

5 1st Floor - workshop 7.00 - 9.50

Inspired by the Hawaiian Feather Cloaks in the collection, join a drop-in workshop and help create a cloak of colourful labels

6 Sign up for free tours

- 7.30 - 7.50 Korean tours - a museum tour from one of our Youth Group
- 8.10 - 8.30 exploring the history of the Korean peninsula from the 19th century to the present
- 8.00 - 8.45 LGBTIQ+ activism tours - a tour connecting Pitt Rivers Museum objects to contemporary activism
- 9.00 - 9.45

6 Behind the scenes with Beyond the Binary

- 8.00 - 8.45 Behind the scenes with Community Curators from Beyond the Binary.
- 9.00 - 9.45 Uncover LGBTIQ+ histories buried within the collections

Upstairs in the Museum of Natural History Lecture Theatre 7

Stairs or lift to .. 5

7 Museum of Natural History Lecture Theatre The National Launch of LGBT+History Month 2020 Talks

7.45 - 8.15 Maisie Barker - 'Schools Out'

Dean Atta - poet and author of The Black Flamingo

Sue Sanders - founder and Chair of LGBT+ History Month

Louise Wallwein - award-winning poet, playwright and performer

Holly James Johnson - the sapphic moment in Virginia Woolf's Mrs. Dalloway

8.45 - 9.15 Hannah Bruce - Pitt Rivers Beyond the Binary project

Mike Parker - author of On the Red Hill

Zayna Ratty - Chair of Oxford Pride

Caroline Page & Commander Roly Woods - authors of Fighting with Pride

Sue Sanders - founder and Chair of LGBT+ History Month

Museum lawn

8 Luxmuralis Son et Lumière: Diversity
Sound and light artists Luxmuralis will deliver another spectacular light and sound show projected on to the facade of the museum. A collaboration with Fusion Arts, Oxford.

For the Museum of Natural History programme please see the chalk boards in the museum

A big thank you to all our partners and contributors. We hope you have a fantastic evening at the museums